

Make “they grow up so fast” a little easier.

Start your grad out with a $100 bonus in a new checking account.

Right now, graduating high school seniors who do not have an existing consumer checking account can receive a bonus of $100 when they:

- 1 Visit their nearest Wells Fargo and present this bonus offer coupon to a banker at account opening.
- 2 Open a new eligible Wells Fargo consumer checking account with a minimum opening deposit of $25 (not including the bonus) from April 15 to June 16, 2017.
- 3 Make 10 purchases/payments with their Wells Fargo Debit Card within 60 days of account opening.
Transactions at an ATM or purchases/payments made using your checking account number and routing number through the Automated Clearing House (ACH) do not count as a debit card purchase/payment.
- 4 We will deposit the bonus into their new checking account within 45 days of meeting bonus eligibility and qualifications.

Save time — schedule their visit with us at wellsfargo.com/appointments, and be sure to ask the banker about checking account fees and how to waive the monthly service fee.

See reverse side for important disclosures.

If the graduating senior is under 18 (19 in Alabama), and the Everyday Checking account is the best fit for the customer, it may be opened with a parent or guardian as co-owner. Parent or guardian must be present at account opening.
